

HILTON WUYI MOUNTAIN RESORT

in the cradle of the wuyi mountains

From the misty mountains of Wuyi, home of the famous oolong tea of same name and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, rises a 300 room resort embodying modern interpretations of the region's rich architectural and cultural history.

Actually a city resort but the abundance of verdant landscape, water play, hot springs, resort amenities and architectural massing reveals a relaxing mountain retreat.

Wuyishan, Fujian province, China
Yango Group

